

van Halm & van Halm
fine oriental ceramics

Kangxi Jug
Jugs

£1,450

REF: 2590

Height: 18.5 cm (7.3")

Description

A rare blue and white jug decorated with two main panels of precious objects, vessels and symbols above panels of flowers. Marked to the base with a flower. Made for export to European markets, the shape of this jug is possibly derived from a European silver or majolica earthenware example.

Condition: cover lacking, porcelain handle replaced by an 18th century European pewter handle, significantly leaning from base (back, towards handle), otherwise fine.

Kangxi period (1662-1722).