

van Halm & van Halm
fine oriental ceramics

Amsterdam overdecorated plates

Over Decorated

£500

REF: 2377

Diameter: 22.8 cm (9")

Description

A pair of plates decorated in Imari colours and overdecorated in The Netherlands in the 18th century with an unusual border decoration of a male figure with two females in a garden in grisaille and famille rose enamels.

Condition: one with star crack to base, the other fine.

The porcelain early 18th century, the overdecoration mid 18th century.