

van Halm & van Halm
fine oriental ceramics

Armorial charger
Armorial

£850

REF: 2616

Diameter: 39 cm (15.4")

Description

A rare armorial charger decorated in blue enamel and cold painted black and gilt with the arms of Fortescue and Dormer below the crest of a hound (?). The border with flowers, shells and a scroll with a landscape in underglaze blue.

Condition: terrible. A large piece attached with rivets and two cracks from rim riveted. Another piece recently restuck to the rim of about 13cm.

Yongzheng period, circa 1722-1724.